

RETIRE YOUR UNSERVICEABLE Old Glory

July 12, 2013

Retire Your Old Glory Capitol Flag winner, Darlene Buck, center, accepts the American Flag that was flown over the US Capitol Building in Washington, DC. Darlene retired her flag in the Old Glory Bin at the Millcreek Municipal Building as part of the month long community-wide campaign to collect flags that were no longer a fitting emblem for display. Erie area residents deposited a total of 1218 flags during the campaign.

Also pictured are Jessica James, left, Recycling Coordinator for Millcreek, Jackie Tamaro, Erie Coordinator for Retire Your Old Glory Project, Denise Etter, Director of the Retire Your Old Glory Project from Cranberry Township, PA and Joe Kujawa, Millcreek Township Supervisor.

The Retire Your Old Glory Bin will remain at the Millcreek Municipal Building throughout the year for residents to deposit their faded/tattered flags.

Renew the American Spirit, Fly a New Flag!